School Scheduling - Still looking at information. Parent meeting TBD. Looking at changing bell schedule because now MMS counts PE time at lunch time as instructional time. Without that time, we would be 37 hours short of instructional time each year. 225 minutes of PE per week recommended, not mandated by state, which students get during PE. 46% of students' day is spent in core classes, 17% in health/PE, 23% electives and 6% transitions and lunch. 69% of teachers district wide feel that current schedule does not give them enough time to meet the needs of ALL students. Long range plan suggests that we should look at schedules. Moved away from block scheduling based on teacher feedback.

How would it be handled with special needs students? It will take several years to implement change, including training of staff members.

As a community, what are things that are NOT negotiable?

Listening to the teachers is a priority

Teachers receive the training that they need

From teachers point, they would like to know that they would not lose their planning day to meetings, trainings, etc

PLC and time to meet with parents on "planning day"

Hired new 6th grade SS teacher, Lindsay Fronk. Dana McCullum went to Literacy Coach position

Flapjack fundraiser a success. Well attended.
